The second goal of the scheme is to support Voluntary Organisations in attracting young people to volunteering, enabling them to enhance their capacity with new volunteers and fresh ideas.

1.3 Priorities of the Scheme

The following policy priorities will be pursued:

- ❖ Promoting active citizenship to young people by fostering social inclusion and the active participation of young people in society;

3.0 Guidelines for the Support for Youth Voluntary Work Scheme

3.1 Introduction

The Youth Voluntary Work Scheme aims to support Young People taking an active part in voluntary organisations. The first goal is to help young people improve their skills and employment prospects by giving them an opportunity to take up volunteering as part of their non-formal and informal learning process. It will also enable them to discover the value of voluntary service and helps to foster a sense of community and active citizenship.

The second goal of the scheme is to support Voluntary Organisations in attracting young people to volunteering, enabling them to enhance their capacity with new volunteers and fresh ideas. This guide is intended to help Voluntary Organisations obtain host accreditation for the Youth Voluntary Work Scheme.

3.2 What is Accreditation?

Accreditation is a requirement needed for Voluntary Organisations to host Youth Volunteers under the Youth Voluntary Work Scheme. It is designed to ensure consistently high standards in the Scheme and to help Youth Volunteers find placement in Voluntary Organisations and vice versa.

Accreditation is a quality assurance process facilitating communication between host Voluntary Organisation and the Scheme structures, so that all parties involved are aware of the values, objectives and rules of the Scheme. All accredited Voluntary Organisations must show they have the capacity and structure to able to engage, train, manage, monitor and support Youth Volunteers.

3.3 Who is the Accreditation for?

Accreditation is for Voluntary Organisations that want to receive Young Volunteers under this Scheme. To obtain accreditation, the Voluntary Organisation submitting the Expression of Interest must be enrolled with the Commissioner for Voluntary Organisations, and must show that it has the capacity to host volunteers. A Youth Volunteer must be hosted and give service only within the accredited host Voluntary Organisation.

3.4 Calls of Application for Host Voluntary Organisations

Calls for application for Accreditation to become Host Voluntary Organisation shall be issued regularly for Youth Volunteer placements, where Voluntary Organisations must submit the amount of Youth Volunteers being requested and the type of voluntary work these volunteers will be engaged in.

Voluntary Organisations can submit their Accreditation Application (AA) to become Host Voluntary Organisations at any point in time to be considered for accreditation which call will be kept open throughout the rest of the calendar year.

Voluntary Organisation may apply to host up to three (3) Youth Volunteers at a go. Should a Voluntary Organisation wish to host more than three (3) Youth Volunteers, they may express such interest and would be considered should there be a number of Youth Volunteers who still need placement following the take up by other Voluntary Organisations or should there be a number of Youth Volunteers who would specifically wish to work in that particular sector.

Once approved, accreditation is valid for one calendar year, though the MCVS reserves the right to revoke the accreditation during the agreed period should there be reasonable grounds to act in such a manner. An accredited Host Voluntary Organisation must renew its interest to participate in the Scheme in each new calendar year.
